

SUMMER INSTITUTE ON YOUTH VIOLENCE PREVENTION

AUGUST 7 - 12, 2005

TO BE HELD AT

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN DIEGO

A Training Opportunity for Doctoral Students sponsored by the Southern California Academic Center of Excellence on Youth Violence Prevention a project of the Presley Center for Crime and Justice Studies University of California, Riverside

Goals and Objectives

- to provide training by professionals with expertise in various areas of YVP that graduate students might not otherwise be exposed to in their own University environments;
- to stimulate discussion and research ideas in the area of YVP;
- to provide training experience that will be relevant to the graduate students' future plans for research and evaluation in the the area of YVP.

Training Focus

- Intervention design, methods, and implementation
- Program evaluation
- Funding sources and how to obtain funding

Eligibility

- Students currently enrolled in a Doctoral graduate program in one of the social sciences, public health, or medicine are encouraged to apply;
- Students must be attending a school within the United States; be US citizens; and/or posses valid US student visas.

Expense

- Out-of-state participants will receive a stipend of $1,000 to cover travel and incidental expenses;
- Southern California residents may receive a reduced stipend of $500 dependent on means of travel (i.e., driving versus flying);
- All participants will be provided with lodging in UCSD student housing for 5 nights and 3 meals a day for 4 days.

Application

- Application deadline is April 1, 2005;
- Applications must be complete and accompanied by all requested documentation in order to be considered for selection. Incomplete application packets will be discarded;
- Application form and complete application instructions can be downloaded from our website at www.stopyouthviolence.ucr.edu or obtained via fax or mail by calling 951.827.4604.

For Information call Roxie at 951.827.4604 or send email to roxanna.alcaraz@ucr.edu